

BRIEF LOCALS.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 19, 1898.

Mrs. E. F. Greenlaw returned from Los Angeles Monday.

C. B. Eaman, the Verde valley stockman, was in town Tuesday.

Dr. Heavenston, the dentist, has moved to the Hawks hotel.

Frank Payne of Bellemont was in the city Wednesday, visiting friends.

The board of supervisors met on Monday to canvass the vote cast on the 8th.

George Hanlon, the Chesterfield of barkeepers, is now at the Senate saloon.

A valuable overcoat was stolen from the barber shop of Ed. Bayless Thursday night.

Dr. E. S. Miller is attending the session of the grand lodge F. & A. M. this week at Globe.

Attorney E. M. Doe left for Phoenix yesterday on legal business. He will return Monday.

Jesse Howard, Frank Spear and Jesse Partymun, of Fry Park, came into town Wednesday.

Nicely furnished heated rooms, two doors north of postoffice. Apply to Mrs. Edmund Burke.

Edmund Burke returned to the city Sunday. He has been in Phoenix the past three weeks on legal business.

F. C. Reed left yesterday for Phoenix to attend the territorial Sunday school convention now in session there.

The Phoenix Republican says that J. H. Holmes has purchased a lumber yard in Flagstaff and he left last night for that place to take charge of his new business. Mr Holmes was manager of the Saginaw Lumber company at Phoenix for several years. His family will follow him to their new home in a few days.

Fred Bugbee, one of the wounded Rough Riders, has resumed his old position of breaking on the Santa Fe Pacific.

Probate Judge Layton issued, Wednesday, a marriage license to M. R. Krutsinger and Miss Ella Farley, both of Williams.

B. F. Hayes, who has been engaged in making the excavation for the waterworks, completed his part of the work last week.

The family of Arthur Frankforter left Sunday for Phoenix, where they will spend the winter. Mr. Frankforter will go to Globe, where he will engage in business.

H. P. Ewing and W. Heimrod, prominent citizens of Mohave county, spent several days here this week. Mr. Heimrod during his stay got acquainted with the Masonic goat.

Mrs. E. E. Ellinwood and children returned yesterday from a trip to her old home in Rock Creek, O. Mr. Ellinwood met them at Raton, N. M., and returned with them.

The excavation for the reservoir is completed and the work of cementing will be pushed as rapidly as possible. The pipes for the main are being distributed along the line.

Dan Mahoney, brother of J. C. Mahoney, the quill driver, came in from the reservoir Saturday. He says the thermometer there registered 8 degrees above the day before he came in.

Jake Salzman of Williams, was in town Thursday on his regular tour. He is on his way to Gallup. Mr. Salzman says work is progressing rapidly on the Saginaw Southern railroad. Work on the Grand Canyon railroad will soon